

LIONSGATE ACADEMY

609 PROHIBITION OF HARASSMENT AND VIOLENCE POLICY

Original Adoption Date: 10/15/2011

Revision Date(s): 12/17/2013, 12/15/2016, 4/10/2023

Review Date(s): 12/7/2016, 1/14/2020, 2/1/2022

I. PURPOSE

- A. It will be a violation of this policy for any student or Lionsgate Academy employee to harass a student or Lionsgate Academy employee through conduct (e.g., physical, verbal, graphic or written) that is based upon that student or employee's actual or perceived race, color, creed, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, disability, public assistance, or marital status or age [protected class] as defined by this policy. For purposes of this policy, a Lionsgate Academy employee includes school board members, school employees, agents, volunteers, contractors, or persons subject to the supervision and control of Lionsgate Academy.
- B. It will be a violation of this policy for any student or Lionsgate Academy employee to inflict, threaten to inflict, or attempt to inflict violence based upon a student or Lionsgate Academy employee's actual or perceived protected class as defined by this policy.
- C. Lionsgate Academy will investigate all complaints, formal or informal, verbal or written, of harassment and/or violence based upon a student or employee's perceived or actual protected class and to discipline or take appropriate action against any student or school Lionsgate Academy employee who is found to have violated this policy.

II. DEFINITIONS

The following definitions, which have been modified for purposes of this policy, are found in the Minnesota Human Rights Act. Please note that there is not a definition for every protected class.

- A. Disability. "'Disability" means any condition or characteristic that renders a person disabled person. A disabled person is any person who (1) has a physical, sensory, or mental impairment which materially limits one or more major life activities; (2) has a record of such an impairment; or (3) is regarded as having such an impairment." [1]
- B. Discriminate. "The term "discriminate" includes segregate or separate and, for purposes of discrimination based on sex, it includes sexual harassment."
- C. Educational institution. "Educational institution" means a public or private institution and includes an academy, college, elementary or secondary school, extension course, kindergarten, nursery, school system and a business, nursing, professional, secretarial, technical, vocational school, and includes an agent of an educational institution."
- D. National origin. "'National origin" means the place of birth of an individual or of any of the individual's lineal ancestors." [2]
- E. Sexual harassment. "Sexual harassment" includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, sexually motivated physical contact or other verbal or physical conduct or communication of a sexual nature when:

1. submission to that conduct or communication is made a term or condition, either explicitly or implicitly, of obtaining employment, ... [or] education...;
 2. submission to or rejection of that conduct or communication by an individual is used as a factor in decisions affecting that individual's employment, ...[or] education...; or
 3. that conduct or communication has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's employment, ...[or] education..., or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive employment, ...[or] educational... environment."
- F. Sexual orientation. "Sexual orientation" means having or being perceived as having an emotional, physical, or sexual attachment to another person without regard to the sex of that person or having or being perceived as having an orientation for such attachment, or having or being perceived as having a self-image or identity not traditionally associated with one's biological maleness or femaleness.
- G. Gender Identity. "Gender identity" means a person's deeply held sense or psychological knowledge of their own gender. One's gender identity can be the same as or different from the gender assigned at birth. Most people have a gender identity that matches their assigned gender at birth. For some, however, their gender identity is different from their assigned gender. All people have gender identity, not just transgender people
- H. Gender expression. "Gender expression" means the manner in which a person represents or expresses gender to others, often through behavior, clothing, hairstyles, activities, voice or mannerisms

III. HARASSMENT AND VIOLENCE GENERAL APPLICABILITY

- A. The anti discrimination laws apply to all of the academic and nonacademic (e.g. extracurricular) programs of Lionsgate Academy, whether conducted in school Lionsgate Academy facilities or elsewhere.
- B. For purposes of this policy, any student who is harassed or discriminated against, including subject to violence, by peers or Lionsgate Academy employees based upon that student's actual or perceived sex, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, race, color, creed, national origin, religion, disability, receipt of public assistance, or marital status and age [protected class] may file a complaint as described more fully in section IV below.
- C. For purposes of this policy, any Lionsgate Academy employee who is harassed or discriminated against, including violence, by students or other Lionsgate Academy employees based upon that employee's actual or perceived sex, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, race, color, creed, national origin, religion, disability, receipt of public assistance, or marital status and age may file a complaint as described more fully in section IV below.
- D. The alleged harassment/violence consists of harassing conduct (e.g. physical, verbal, graphic, electronic or written verbal or physical) based upon that student's actual or perceived protected class that interferes or limits the ability of that student to participate in, enjoy, or benefit from the education program, including athletics and extracurricular activities.
- E. The alleged harassment/violence may not be directed at a particular person, but may instead consist of harassing conduct (e.g. physical, verbal, graphic, electronic or written) that creates a hostile environment for students based upon actual or perceived protected class that interferes with or limits the student's ability to participate in, enjoy, or benefit from the academic and nonacademic programs, including athletics and extracurricular activities.

IV. DESCRIPTION OF HARASSMENT BASED UPON A PERSON'S PERCEIVED OR ACTUAL PROTECTED CLASS

- A. Harassment is unwelcome conduct that is based upon actual or perceived sex, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, race, color, creed, national origin, religion, disability, receipt of public assistance, or marital status and age.
 - 1. Harassing conduct may take many forms, including verbal acts and name-calling, as well as nonverbal behavior, such as graphic, electronic and written statements, or conduct that is physically threatening, harmful, or humiliating.
 - 2. It is unwelcome if the student or employee did not request or invite it and considered the conduct to be undesirable or offensive.
 - 3. The conduct is considered harassment if it creates a hostile environment by interfering with or denying a student's participation in or receipt of benefits, services, or opportunities in Lionsgate Academy's programs.
- B. Sexual harassment based upon sex/gender and/or sexual orientation
 - I. Sexual conduct that is unwelcome.
 - a. It is unwelcome if the student or employee did not request or invite it and considered the conduct undesirable or offensive.
 - b. A student's submission to the above, or failure to complain, does not mean that the conduct was welcome – look at circumstances.
- C. Sexual violence: Sexual violence is a physical act of aggression or force or the threat thereof which involves the touching of another's intimate parts, or forcing a person to touch any person's intimate parts. Intimate parts, as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 609.341, includes the primary genital area, groin, inner thigh, buttocks or breast, as well as the clothing covering these areas.
 - 1. Sexual violence includes rape, sexual assault, and dating violence. This includes coerced sexual intercourse or other sexual acts. The physical act is considered non consensual if a person is incapable of giving consent due to alcohol or drug use or due to an intellectual or other disability.
 - 2. Sexual violence includes touching, patting, grabbing, or pinching another student's or employee's intimate parts of the clothing covering the intimate parts.
 - 3. Sexual violence includes coercing or forcing or attempting to coerce or force a student or employee to touch anyone's intimate parts.
 - 4. A police report does not relieve the school of its responsibilities under Title IX.
- D. Assault: Assault, as defined in state statute 609.02 subd.10 is:
 - 1. an act done with intent to cause fear in another of immediate bodily harm or death; or
 - 2. the intentional infliction of or attempt to inflict bodily harm upon another.
- E. Racial, color, creed or national origin harassment/violence

1. Intimidation or abusive behavior toward a student, based on perceived or actual race, color, creed or national origin, that creates a hostile environment by interfering with or denying a student's participation in or receipt of benefits, services, or opportunities in Lionsgate Academy's programs.
2. Racial violence: Racial violence is a physical act of aggression or force, or the threat thereof, which is directed toward a student or employee based upon their perceived or actual race, color, creed, or national origin.

F. Religious harassment/violence

1. Intimidation or abusive behavior toward a student based on perceived or actual religious beliefs that create a hostile environment by interfering with or denying a student's participation in or receipt of benefits, services, or opportunities in the school Lionsgate Academy's programs.
2. Religious violence is the threat of or an actual physical act of aggression or force which is directed toward a student or employee based upon their perceived or actual religion.

G. Disability harassment

1. Intimidation or abusive behavior toward a student based on disability that creates a hostile environment by interfering with or denying a student's participation in or receipt of benefits, services, or opportunities in the school Lionsgate Academy's programs.
2. Disability harassment also may deny a student with a disability a free and appropriate public education (FAPE). Harassment of a student based on disability may decrease the student's ability to benefit from his or her education and amount to a denial of FAPE.

H. Gender identity or gender expression harassment

1. Intimidation or abusive behavior toward a student based on perceived or actual gender identity or gender expression that create a hostile environment by interfering with or denying a student's participation in or receipt of benefits, services, or opportunities in the school Lionsgate Academy's programs.
2. Gender identity harassment or gender expression harassment is the threat of or an actual physical act of aggression or force which is directed toward a student or employee based upon their perceived or actual gender identity or gender expression.

V. REPORTING PROCEDURES

- A. The adoption and implementation of a proper reporting system can help Lionsgate Academy comply with the Minnesota Human Rights Act by allowing Lionsgate Academy to promptly address allegations of harassment and violence.
- B. Pursuant to Title IX, each school must designate at least one employee to coordinate its efforts to comply with and carry out its responsibilities under the regulations, including Title IX complaint investigation (Title IX Coordinator). 34 C.F.R., section 106.8(a). I Lionsgate Academy must also publish grievance procedures providing for prompt and equitable resolution of sex discrimination complaints, including complaints of sexual harassment. In addition, under Section 504 and Title II, schools are also required to have grievance procedures to address disability harassment.

- C. Minnesota Statutes, section 121A.03 requires that schools have reporting procedures for sexual, religious, and racial harassment and/or violence complaints.
1. For purposes of meeting the state reporting requirements, the following reporting procedure will be made available for students and staff who wish to report an incident or incidents that may involve harassment or violence based upon actual or perceived sex/gender, sexual orientation, race, color, creed, national origin, religion, disability, receipt of public assistance, or marital status and age.
 2. Designated school person to receive oral or written complaints/reports of actual or perceived sex/gender, sexual orientation, race, color, creed, national origin, religion, disability, receipt of public assistance, or marital status and age.
- D. Human Rights Officer Designation
1. The school board hereby designates the human resource director as Lionsgate Academy human rights officer to receive reports or complaints of harassment or violence based upon actual or perceived sex/gender, sexual orientation, race, color, creed, national origin, religion, disability, receipt of public assistance, or marital status and age. If the complaint involves one of the designated human rights officers, the complaint will be filed directly with the executive director.
- E. Lionsgate Academy will conspicuously post the name of the human rights officer(s), executive director, and the school board chairperson: including contact information on the Lionsgate Academy website.
1. The Human Rights Officer is: the Director of Human Resources. Mailing address: 5605 Green Circle Drive, Minnetonka, MN 55343. Telephone number: 612-217-0436.
 2. The executive director: Mailing address: 5605 Green Circle Drive, Minnetonka, MN 55343. Telephone number; 612-217-0436.
 3. The school board contact is: the school board chair. Mailing address: 5605 Green Circle Drive, Minnetonka, MN 55343. Telephone number: 612-217-0436.
- F. These reporting procedures are not intended to prevent a person from reporting harassment or violence incident(s) to another school administrator.
1. The school administrator must immediately notify the executive director, who is then responsible to submit the oral or written complaint/report to the human rights officer without screening or investigating the credibility of the report. If the school principal is not available on the date of the report, then the school official must forward the oral or written report/complaint directly to the human rights officer.
 2. If the report was given verbally, the executive director will personally reduce it to written form within 24 hours and forward it to the human rights officer.
 - a. If the executive director fails to forward any harassment or violence report or complaint (written or verbal) to the human rights officer within 24 hours, the executive director will be subject to disciplinary action.
 3. If the complaint involves the executive director, the complaint will be made or filed directly with the Lionsgate Academy human rights officer by the school administrator or reporting party or complainant.
- G. The Human Rights Officer may request, but not insist, upon a written complaint. Lionsgate Academy encourages the reporting party to complete written complaints. Alternative means of filing a complaint, such as through a personal interview or by tape recording, will be made available upon request for qualified persons with a disability.

- H. The complaint (verbal or written) should be reported to a school official immediately, or within 30 calendar days whenever possible, of the alleged violation. Lionsgate Academy will accept reports of alleged incidents that are older than 30 calendar days; however, delays between the date of the alleged incident and the reporting date may make investigations more difficult.

VI. INVESTIGATION

- A. The Human Rights Officer, upon receipt of a complaint alleging discrimination or harassment toward an employee or student, will promptly undertake an investigation if deemed appropriate. The Title IX coordinator may conduct the investigation complaints of sexual harassment, the 504 coordinator for complaints of disability harassment, or the human rights officer for other types of alleged harassment and violence covered by this policy. The Title IX coordinator/504 coordinator or human rights officer may designate a neutral third party to conduct the investigation. The investigation will be completed within 30 calendar days from receipt of the complaint, unless impracticable.
- B. The investigation may consist of personal interviews with the complainant, the individual(s) against whom the complaint is filed, and others who may have knowledge of the alleged incident(s) or circumstances giving rise to the complaint. The investigation may also consist of any other methods and documents deemed pertinent by the investigator.
- C. In determining whether alleged conduct constitutes a violation of this policy, Lionsgate Academy will consider the facts and the surrounding circumstances, such as the nature of the behavior, past incidents or continuing patterns of behavior, the relationships between the parties involved, and the context in which the alleged incident occurred.
- D. Lionsgate Academy may take immediate steps to protect the parties involved in the complaint process, pending completion of an investigation of alleged unlawful discrimination or harassment of an employee or student.
 - 1. Upon completion of the investigation, Lionsgate Academy or a neutral third party designated investigator will make a written report to the human rights officer. If the complaint involves the Human Rights Officer, the report must be filed directly with the executive director. If the complaint involves the executive director, the report must be filed directly with the Human Rights Officer or Board chairperson. The report will include the facts, a determination of whether the allegations have been substantiated and whether a violation of this policy has occurred, as well as a description of any proposed resolution which may include alternate dispute resolution.
 - 2. Upon completion of the investigation, the Human Rights Officer will inform the complainant/reporter of his or her right to review the written report at the school building where the complainant/reporter is employed or enrolled, in accordance with state and federal law regarding data or records privacy.
 - 3. If the complainant/reporter is a student, the Human Rights Officer will inform the parent/guardian of his or her right to review the written report at the school building where the student reporter is enrolled, in accordance with state and federal law regarding data or records privacy.

4. Lionsgate Academy must comply with federal and state law pertaining to retention of records.

VII. APPEAL

If the grievance has not been resolved to the satisfaction of the complainant/reporter, s/he may appeal to the human rights officer within ten (10) school days of receipt of the findings of the school Lionsgate Academy investigation. Lionsgate Academy's investigator will conduct a review of the appeal and, within ten (10) school days of receipt of the appeal, will affirm, reverse, or modify the findings of the report. The decision of the Lionsgate Academy's investigator is final, and action will occur as addressed in VIII below.

VIII. SCHOOL ACTION

- A. Upon conclusion of the investigation and receipt of the findings, Lionsgate Academy will take appropriate and effective action. If the investigator determined that a violation of this policy has occurred, such action may include, but is not limited to, warning, suspension, exclusion, expulsion, transfer, remediation, termination or discharge. Actions may also include alternative dispute resolution, including restorative justice programs, school wide training, counseling, and class transfer. Lionsgate Academy action taken for violation of this policy will be consistent with the requirements of state and federal law, and Lionsgate Academy policies.
- B. The result of the Lionsgate Academy's investigation of each complaint filed under these procedures will be reported in writing to the complainant by the school Lionsgate Academy in accordance with state and federal law regarding data or records privacy.

IX. REPRISAL

Lionsgate Academy will take appropriate action against any student, teacher, administrator or other school personnel who retaliates against any person who reports alleged unlawful harassment toward an employee or student or any person who testifies, assists, participates in an investigation or hearing related to alleged unlawful harassment covered by this policy. Reprisal also includes retaliation against a student or Lionsgate Academy employee who associates with a person or group or persons who are disabled or who are of different race, color, creed, religion, sexual orientation, or national origin. Retaliation includes, but is not limited to, any form of intimidation or harassment. Reprisal is also prohibited based upon a request for a religious or disability accommodation.

X. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

If there is a conflict of interest with respect to any party affected by this policy, appropriate accommodations will be made, such as, but not limited to, appointing or contracting with a neutral third party investigator to conduct the investigation, or recusal from the process by the person for whom a conflict or potential conflict of interest exists.

XI. HARASSMENT OR VIOLENCE AS ABUSE

- A. Under certain circumstances, alleged harassment or violence may also be possible abuse under Minnesota law. If so, the duties of reporting the maltreatment of minors under Minnesota Statute 260E., may be applicable.

- B. Nothing in this policy will prohibit the school Lionsgate Academy from taking immediate action to protect victims of alleged harassment, violence, or abuse.

XII. DISSEMINATION OF POLICY AND TRAINING

- A. This policy must be conspicuously posted throughout each school building in areas accessible to students and staff members.
- B. This policy must be given to each school Lionsgate Academy employee and independent contractor at the time of entering into the person's employment contract.
- C. This policy must be included in each school's student handbook on school policies.
- D. Lionsgate Academy will provide information and a forum for discussion of this policy at least one time per year in each program (Minnetonka, Shoreview, AIM, Lynx). Lionsgate Academy Employees will receive direct instruction on this policy during the employee orientation and work time prior to the start of each school year
- E. The school board will review this policy annually for compliance with state and federal law.
- F. Lionsgate Academy will post this policy on its website and ensure that it is easily accessible to view and download.

XIII. RIGHT TO ALTERNATIVE COMPLAINT PROCEDURES

These procedures do not deny the right of any individual to pursue other avenues of recourse which may include filing charges with the agencies below, filing a report with a law enforcement agency, or initiating action in state or federal court. For claims of unlawful discrimination/harassment:
