I. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that board members receive adequate orientation to their role.

II. GENERAL STATEMENT OF POLICY

All board members will participate in an orientation training within two months of their election or appointment.

The scope of the orientation will include, but is not limited to MN Statutes governing charter schools, open meetings, and nonprofit accounting. This will include the legal requirements for school board member training and a description of the position. In addition, the orientation will include Lionsgate Academy policies and procedures.

The orientation may be provided by any member of the board of directors or the executive director.
